About Vizag

Visakhapatnam's history stretches back to the 6th Century BC and the city finds mention in Ancient texts such as the 4th Century BC writings of Panini and Katyayana. Historically considered part of the Kalinga region, it was ruled by the Vengi Kingdom and the Pallava and Eastern Ganges dynasties during medieval times. Archaeological records suggest that the present city was built around the 11th and 12th Centuries AD by the Chola dynasty king Kulothunga I. Control over the city fluctuated between the Chola dynasty of Tamil Nadu and the Gajapati Kingdom of Odisha until its conquest by the Vijayanagara Empire in the 15th Century. In the 16th century it was conquered by the Mughals. European powers eventually set up trading interests in the city and Visakhapatnam came under French control at the end of the 18th century.
