VISAKHA LAW REVIEW

About DSNLU:

With growing importance for quality legal education, various national law schools acquired lot of importance. To meet the requirements of students of this State, the Government of Andhra Pradesh decided to establish a new Law University and as per the decision of the Council of Ministers meeting held on 30-06-2008 the Governor of Andhra Pradesh promulgated the Andhra Pradesh University of Law Ordinance, 2008 on 8th July 2008. Subsequently the cabinet on 04-08-2008 approved Andhra Pradesh University of Law Bill, 2008, replacing the Ordinance and this Bill was passed by the State Legislature on 28th August 2008 and became an Act after the same was assented to by the Governor on 23rd September 2008. Thus A.P. University of Law came into existence with Visakhapatnam as Main Campus and two branches at Kadapa and Nizamabad.

Further Andhra Pradesh University of Law” name changed as “Damodaram Sanjivayya National Law University” vide Andhra Pradesh University of Law (Amendment) Act, 2012 (Act No. 15 of 2012) published in the Andhra Pradesh Gazette Extraordinary dated 14th May 2012. The Government of Andhra Pradesh has notified vide G.O. Ms. No. 63 dated 22-5-2012 that the 22nd Day of May 2012 is the date on which the provisions of the said Act shall come into force.

About the DSNLU VISAKHA LAW REVIEW:

We are pleased to announce that Damodaram Sanjivayya National Law University, Visakhapatnam invited submissions on contemporary legal issues for publication in the inaugural volume of DSNLU VISAKHA LAW REVIEW and aspires to carve out a niche in legal journalism and to serve as a research arm for practitioners, academicians and the broader intellectual community.

It is a bi-annual, double bind peer-reviewed Journal which aims to provide the students, Researchers, Members of the academia and other eminent persons with an opportunity to explore the arena of legal research and writing, and seeks to instill in them, the ability to critique. The Journal aims to render top quality publications on topics related to law.

MAIN THEME OF FIRST ISSUE:

Constitutional Law has and will for a long time be a highly relevant document, the Magna Carta; governing and guiding nations through the institutions, it creates. While Constitutions and Constitutional Law have been around for a long time, its relevance has never been more than now.

With the rapid growth of technology, inclusivity has not remained just a dream; it is fast becoming a reality. This reality though is waking us up to different problems of constitutional importance. Problems of re-conceptualizing fundamental substantive and procedural practices of our institutions so that they are well equipped to handle this new technology infrastructure.

Visakha Law Journal, the flagship journal of Damodaram Sanjivayya National Law University endeavors to go in search of these latest issues in Constitutional Law and Policy and in its first issue calls for academic papers on the issues of central constitutional importance.
